Q1. Show the 10 customers with the highest single transaction amount.

Q2. Show all customers ordered by the total amount of all their transactions. Show the name of the customer and the total. Start with the customer with the highest total.

Q3. Show vendors that have transactions with every single credit card.

Q4. Show vendors that have transactions with every single credit card type.

Q5. Print the 5 richest vendors. These are the vendors that have made the most money from transactions. Start with the richest vendor.

Q6. Print the names of vendors that have more than 1000 transactions in a single month. Remember that you call the methods month and year on a date and you can group by these values.

Q7. Print the names of customers that own more than 10 credit cards.

Q8. Print the names of customers that have posted a payment every single month in 2014. You may need to create a table that contains all the month numbers.

Q9. Print the names of customers that have posted more than one payment in a single month.

Q10. Print the names of customer that have a month without a payment in 2014.